

Personal Information and Privacy Policy

SCOPE

This policy is applicable to all AFTT's students and Academic/Admin Team members.

PURPOSE

This policy outlines AFTT approach to protecting the privacy of our students. AFTT complies with the requirements of Clause 23 of Schedule 1A of the Act and the Information Privacy Principles set out in the Privacy Act 1988 in relation to the collection of information relating to students. AFTT will allow a student to apply for and receive a copy of the personal information that the provider holds in relation to that student.

DEFINITIONS

For definitions not listed here please refer to AFTT's Glossary.

POLICY

COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

Personal information will not be collected unless the:

- information is collected for a purpose directly related to students, and
- collection of the information is necessary for or directly related to that purpose.

Personal information will not be collected by unlawful or unfair means.

Where personal information is collected for inclusion in a record or in a generally available publication, AFTT will take reasonable steps to ensure that, before the information is collected or, if that is not practicable, as soon as practicable after the information is collected, the student concerned is generally aware of:

- the purpose for which the information is being collected,
- if the collection of the information is authorised or required by or under law the fact that the collection of the information is so authorised or required, and
- with whom the information may be shared (such as the Australian Government).

Where AFTT solicits and collects personal information for inclusion in a record or in a generally available publication it will take reasonable steps to ensure that:

- the information collected is relevant to that purpose and is up to date and complete, and
- the collection of the information does not intrude to an unreasonable extent upon the personal affairs of the student.

STORAGE AND SECURITY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

AFTT will ensure:

- that the record is protected, by such security safeguards as it is reasonable in the circumstances to take, against loss, against unauthorised access, use, modification or disclosure, and against other misuse, and
- that if it is necessary for the record to be given to a person in connection with the provision of a service to the provider, everything reasonably within the power of the provider will be done to prevent unauthorised use or disclosure of information contained in the record.

AFTT will maintain a record setting out:

- the nature of the records of personal information kept by or on behalf of the record-keeper,
- the purpose for which each type of record is kept,
- the classes of individuals about whom records are kept,
- the period for which each type of record is kept,
- the persons who are entitled to have access to personal information contained in the records and the conditions under which they are entitled to have that access, and
- the steps that should be taken by persons wishing to obtain access to that information.

AFTT will not use the information without taking reasonable steps to ensure that, having regard to the purpose for which the information is proposed to be used, the information is accurate, up to date and complete. AFTT will not use the information except for a purpose to which the information is relevant.

DISCLOSURE

AFTT will not disclose the information to a person, body or agency (other than the individual concerned) unless:

- the individual concerned is reasonably likely to have been aware that information of that kind is usually passed to that person, body or agency,
- the individual concerned has consented to the disclosure,
